Behold a White Horse: The Coming World Leader
“Behold a White Horse” explores the career of the first of these “Four Horsemen” who seems to have at least 33 titles in the Old Testament and 13 in the New Testament and the common term “AntiChrist” really isn’t one of them.

Behold a Red Horse: Wars and Rumors of Wars
Dr. Chuck Missler reviews the major Biblical references to warfare, the trends in modern weapons technology, and some of the current preparations for war among the major powers.

Behold a Black Horse: Economic Upheaval and Famine
Most famines are the direct results of government’s deliberate decisions. Germany sank into the most severe hyperinflationary period in recorded history after printing 1.3 trillion marks: that translates to about 4 trillion in today’s dollars. Ironically, that is almost exactly the same amount of money the United States government has printed since 2008.

Behold a Livid Horse: Emergent Diseases and Biochemical Warfare
Why are previously conquered diseases now making a comeback? Was the AIDS virus deliberately designed? By whom? And why? Is there any truth behind an agenda to control (and reduce) the world’s population? By whom? And why? Who are the two riders associated with the Livid Horse? How do they differ?
“He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.”
Proverbs 18:13

As maturing Christians, we should find value in diverse views challenging us to further study and to be open to additional perspectives. While we may not agree with all the details in each article, we see great value in them. These articles are intended to stimulate discussion among the Koinonia Institute membership as well as our Personal UPDATE subscribers.

Let’s be honest, most of us only pray out of necessity or habit. We only fall to our knees to pray when we are faced with a problem that we cannot overcome or we deliver a rehearsed prayer when we feel obligated by some tradition or expectation of others. It is as though God is lucky if He gets the first few moments of our meal times as we “bless the food” but then our conversation quickly shifts to more consuming topics like the latest sports scores or our favourite TV programme.

I know the Bible tells us to pray fervently, but have you really tried to do that lately? How about the Apostle Paul’s encouragement for us to “pray without ceasing.” How hard must that be?

Often we only approach God with our list of requests and expect God to merely hear and obey. Sadly this type of prayer life is similar to carrying on a conversation in which only one person has the opportunity to speak. It’s like saying to God, “I know you’re there, but I only have a few minutes so please takes notes.” Subsequently, the length of our prayers are in direct proportion with the length of our list. Once we have completed our tick-list of to-dos for God, we end with a resounding “Amen” which is our way of saying, “Goodbye.”

Prayer is so much more than what is commonly practised. It is a discipline that takes communication to God and turns it into communion with God. Prayer that is offered from a heart of thanksgiving and fellowship is a “sweet smelling aroma before God.”

May God bless you as you continue to study His Word,

Ron Matsen

Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with (1) truth, and having on (2) the breastplate of righteousness; And (3) your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; Above all, taking (4) the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. And take (5) the helmet of salvation, and (6) the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.”

Ephesians 6:12-17
(We usually include the first six, but then often fail to also include the “heavy artillery”):

Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints.”

Ephesians 6:18

We often fail to recognize that prayer is God’s way of involving us in what He wants to do. It is also provocative to recognize that He has a continuing yearning. (It baffles me that the God of the Universe can have an unsatisfied yearning. The very concept stretches my horizon of possibilities.)

He seems to have a need to “be trusted.” Every day, He seems to ask the same question a different way: “Do you trust Me?” Whether you label the result “hope,” “faith,” or whatever, the ultimate result is the same. This seems to be a major aspect of the continuing courtship as we go through life…

And perhaps the most instructive example occurred when God declared to Solomon that if we did four things, He would respond with three:

“If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.”

2 Chronicles 7:14

We know how to “humble ourselves” (we may not do it enough, but we know how). “And pray.” Again, we know how, although we don’t do enough of it. Then, “seek His face:” that’s more of a heart-thing: a commitment of the volition. “And turn from our wicked ways;” Aye, there’s the rub: repentance is required!
Note, too, to whom this is all addressed! It is not addressed to the legislatures or executives in the government. It is not addressed to the executives of the entertainment industry. It is not addressed to the unsaved public.

It is addressed to “my people who are called by my name!” It is addressed to the members of the Body of Christ! It is the sins within the Ecclesia that stand in the way of what He would prefer to do: “to hear from heaven, forgive their sin, and heal their land.” Devoutly to be wished, indeed.

I would never rule out the possibility that repentance can be the path to redemption.

Some argue that it may already be too late. Is it too late to regain what we once had? I would never rule out the possibility that repentance can be the path to redemption.

The Priority of Prayer

Referred to over 500 times in the Scriptures, everyone can exercise this fantastic resource. It’s a ministry all of us are called to. In fact, it is the most important activity a Christian can engage in. And it is the deciding factor in spiritual warfare.

The Elements of Prayer

One of the key elements of prayer is worship. This part is the most fun. How glorious it is to simply celebrate the greatness, the beauty, the majesty, of God. And His love. And the precision of His caring.

This leads us to the petition(s). It may surprise us to realize that it is very appropriate to discuss with Him our own needs, and in detail. The “Lord’s Prayer” includes, “Give us this day our daily bread.” Indeed.

Your needs come first, or you can’t help others. “The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.” When you take a flight on an airline, the flight attendant will point out to you that if the oxygen masks should be released, and you are flying with a child, you first put on your own mask, and then assist the child. You can’t give to others what you haven’t got yourself.

1 2 Tim 2:6.
But the real labor of prayer is intercession for others: “...supplication for all saints.”

Artillery in Warfare

You are, in effect, in the position of the “forward controller” in the battlefield, with a direct line to Command Headquarters, and you are commissioned to call in the fire you need.

There are many types of fire. Enfilade: direct, offensive fire; supporting outreaches; pulling down of strongholds; freeing captives; and removing trammels and shackles. Also, defilade fire: indirect, attacking the enemy’s hidden assets; anticipating where the enemy may be lurking and hiding.

And there is flanking fire. Are you about to be outflanked? An indirect assault from your most vulnerable side? What is your most vulnerable side? Self-? (Fill in the blank yourself.) Our “strongest suit” is usually our weakest suit. Remember Peter.

Be very specific. “Win the war” isn’t a very operative petition. “Hit the enemy” isn’t very useful to a squadron commander. Be very specific. Direct the resources with precision. Pick your targets carefully. Use a rifle rather than a shotgun. Satan will yield only what he has to.

2 2 Cor 10:4.
3 Known as impulsively courageous; yet he denied the Lord (as the Lord predicted). He should have been more prayerful in Gethsemane that fateful night.
Always go for the leverage. Recruit the radical. Interdict the most critical logistics. Go after the foundations. Know your mission and focus. Be strategic. Even pray for what is prophesied (thus, ostensibly inevitable). Prayer is God’s way of enlisting us in what He is doing.

Don’t impute any limitations on your HQ. Don’t assume any restrictions on the assets available.⁴ Don’t ask for small arms fire when a blockbuster may be called for. Only prayer can really change things. The prayer closet is far more effective than the ballot box.

The value of concentration is basic in military strategy. Coordinated fire is always more effective. “Where two or three agree...”⁵

But don’t assume a solution with inadequate G-2.⁶ Maybe an accurate assessment is our first priority. Remember, in accordance with His Will. Discover it through His Word. It is to be a dialogue, not a monologue. Always to the Father, through the Son.⁷

“With all perseverance.” Hit and run tactics rarely yield any lasting results. Persistence is always a key to victory in any calling. Don’t ever give up.

⁵ Mt 18:19, 20.
⁶ “G-2” is the common military term for the intelligence function of the general staff.
⁷ Jn 14:6.
A Few Hints

You can’t get a clear connection with headquarters with excessive static on the line. This can be the result of unconfessed sin, an unforgiving spirit, selfishness, etc.

Be serious and organized. Use a notepad or notebook. Keep a battlefield record and also keep your Headquarters abreast of your awareness of victories!

Recognize that God often will veto our requests for our own good. (Moses’ denied entry into the Promised Land, Paul’s “thorn in the flesh,” et al. Even Christ in Gethsemane subjected His petitions to the Father’s will.)

Conclusion

It’s obvious that much more can be said on this crucial topic. However, we don’t need more articles, books, videos, or conferences, on prayer. We need more prayer!

8 Isa 59:1-2; Ps 66:18.
9 Jas 4:3.
Those who are the most successful in any field of interest are those who do “the basics” the best—whether it’s learning a new sport, learning a new instrument or learning a new language. Without understanding the basics and getting the fundamentals solidly understood, it’s hard to excel.

As a Christian, the first three “basics” we need to understand are: learning God’s unconditional Love for us, learning how to love Him in return and then allowing Him to Love through us to others, which is Agape (love).

In John 13:34-35, Jesus tells us that we are to love one another just as HE loved us. HE loved us more than His own life and that is how HE now commands us to love one another.

We need to be reminded often that loving God and loving one another is our main job description as Christians. The greatest disciples of Christ will be those who have learned how to love the most.

In the following article that Nancy wrote back in 2012 she goes into depth about Agape and why it matters when we see Jesus at the Bema Seat of Christ.

I pray it blesses you and reminds you to go back “to the basics” of understanding God’s Love; excelling in your understanding of “how to” love God and “how to” love others.

En Agape,

Debbie Holland
Director of Ministry – King’s High Way

And this I pray, that your love (Agape) may abound still more and more in knowledge and all discernment.

Philippians 1:9
John 13:35 tells us that one of the ways other people can tell if we are “Christians” is if we are sharing God’s Agape Love...

By this shall all men know that ye are My disciples, if ye have Love (Agape) one to another.

John 13:35

Agape is the supernatural Love of God that is poured into our hearts the moment we invite Christ to take control of our lives. It’s God Himself who comes into our hearts at that moment. He is that Love! (1 John 4:7-8) This personal Love is what makes Christianity so totally different from all the other religions in the world. Christianity is the only religion where God Himself (who is Agape Love) comes to dwell within each of our hearts.

If we are believers and God’s Love dwells in our hearts, one of the questions we must then ask ourselves is: how does that Love show itself in our lives? Does it flow automatically from our hearts out into our lives? Does it come out on its own? Is it produced involuntarily? No way! Romans 14:23 tells us that anything that is “not of faith” will quench God’s Spirit of Love in our hearts and prevent it flowing out into our lives.

What is it, then, that “we” must do in order to release God’s Love? The answer is: learn to love (agapao) Him with all our heart, soul and mind. (Matthew 22:37)
Loving God

What does loving God really mean? According to the Bible, loving God means totally surrendering ourselves to Him—“with all [our] heart and with all [our] soul and with all [our] mind.” The Greek word for the verb love in this Scripture is agapao, which means “to totally give ourselves over to something.” Agapao is not just an emotional feeling, but what we relinquish our lives to. It’s what we put first in our lives. Agapao means a total commitment of our wills and our lives to something.

How often are you consumed with what He wants for your life and not what you want out of life?

Now, if I asked you, “Do you love God?” most of you would automatically say, “Yes, of course I do!” But if you are really honest with yourself, how often do you seek to put His will and His desires above your own? How often are you consumed with what He wants for your life and not what you want out of life?

Can you honestly say that you desire God’s will above your own happiness?

This question puts it right into perspective, doesn’t it? People everywhere are seeking happiness and contentment as their ultimate goal. Is this your goal? Or is it to set yourself aside and love God?

Loving God means no longer living for ourselves. Loving Him is a demonstration of complete selflessness. Our motive in surrendering ourselves to Him and in doing acts of kindness for others is not to earn His approval or earn our way to heaven, but simply because we want to please Him. This entails continually setting aside our own thoughts, emotions and desires, and doing what He wants.

A Beautiful Example

Let me share with you a beautiful example of this: Many years ago, I met a woman who was in a terrible marital situation. She was totally convinced, however, that God wanted her to stay in her marriage in spite of the circumstances. Her husband no longer loved her and he had told her so in every way possible. When she related some of the appalling things he had done to her, I was absolutely shocked.
(Now none of these things were sexually deviant, evil or weird in any way, but just plain mean.)

I remember thinking to myself, “How could anyone be expected to stay and withstand such cruel behavior”? Her husband had simply tired of her, wanted her out of his life and was pushing her to file for divorce first (it was financially more advantageous to him if she did so). He was thus doing everything he could to make her life miserable.

Certainly she would have been much happier out of the house and away from her tormentor. Yet, she knew that God had not given her permission to leave. And she was more concerned about doing God’s perfect will than her own momentary happiness.

I’ll never forget her, because I too (at the time) was in a difficult marriage, but I had never experienced the things that were happening to her. She made such a big impression on my life.

I happened to run into her years later at a party, and she ran up to me with incredibly wonderful news. God had totally changed her husband’s heart. He had repented, truly asked her forgiveness and was now doing everything he could to make things up to her. God had restored their mutual love and had healed their marriage. I am convinced that the “miracle” was due to her selfless, yet God pleasing, attitude—she was more concerned about doing His will than doing what she knew would bring her momentary happiness.
This is what it means to love (agapao) God. (Before you jump to the conclusion that God’s Love is a “doormat” kind of Love, go to be sure and read my 2012 article, “The Fruit of the Spirit is Love.”)

Also, keep in mind that the Greek verb agapao can have a negative connotation. In other words, we can agapao—totally give ourselves over to—bad things like “darkness” (John 3:19); “the praise of men” (John 12:43); “this present world,” as well as “good things like loving God and others. So don’t confuse the verb agapao with the noun Agape, because they mean totally different things. Agapao is what we totally commit ourselves to and what we surrender our lives to, which can be good or bad, whereas Agape is the supernatural, one-sided, other-centered, and unconditional Love of God. Agape never has a negative usage in Scripture, so don’t confuse the noun Agape (God’s Love) with the verb agapao (what we give ourselves over to).

The Bible gives incredible promises to those who love God. For example:

Hearken My beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world [the humble, the receptive and the yielded] to be rich in faith, to be heirs of the kingdom which He hath promised to them that love Him.

_ James 2:5_

This Scripture is saying that if we love God—if we totally give ourselves over to Him—then He promises to make us heirs of His future kingdom. What a glorious promise! (If you are interested in learning more about loving God and loving others, I might recommend our book The Way of Agape.)

The Greatest Commandment of All

So, loving God and loving others is God’s supreme will (Mark 12:30–31). Even in the Old Testament it says:

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength; this is the first commandment. And the second is this: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. There is no other commandment greater than these.

_Deuteronomy 6:4–5; Leviticus 19:18_
The Bible is virtually summed up in these two commandments. And God promises that those who actually live and keep these two commandments will be the ones who needn’t worry about the upcoming Judgment Seat of Christ where our future reward of inheritance will be given out. 1 John 4:17 tells us as much: “Herein is our Love made perfect (complete), that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as He is, so are we in this world.”

In other words, loving God produces the “fruit of the Spirit” (Agape) and that is what we will be judged on at the Bema Seat. Some of the questions that Christ might ask us at the Bema Seat are:

• “I gave you My Love at your new birth, what did you do with it?”
• “Did you love Me?”
• “Did you love others as I told you to?”
• “Did you multiply My Love or did you bury it like the unprofitable servant?”
• “Was I your life? Or was I just your crutch?”

Think about how you might answer these questions.

In Conclusion

Believers in Christ really have two lives: One is called our “self-life,” which is made up of our own natural thoughts, emotions, and desires. It’s the “old man.” The other life we enjoy as believers is called “God’s Life,” which is made up of His supernatural Love, wisdom, and power.

In order for God’s Life to come forth from our hearts, however, we must continually choose to “put off” our sin and self, and give ourselves over to Him; i.e., become a clean and open vessel. Then, we’ll not only personally experience His Love, but also be that vessel carrying His Love to others. When we don’t choose to do this, Matthew 24:12 tells us, His “Love will grow cold in our lives.” This, of course, will then affect our place, our position, and our status in the coming kingdom. The Bible, therefore, can really be summed up in three little words: Learn to love.

Dr. Chuck Missler explores the background, and myths, surrounding one of our favorite holidays.

- What really happened in Bethlehem two thousand years ago?
- Who were the “Magi?”
- Why a virgin birth?
- What does a Christmas Tree have to do with it?

Each year at Christmas we celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ. After the New Year, we struggle to remember to add a year as we date our checks, which should remind us that the entire Western World reckons its calendar from the birth of the One who changed the world more than any other before or since.

It is disturbing to discover that much of what we have been taught about the Christmas season seems to be more tradition than truth. Santa Claus isn’t the only myth or legend that has arisen out of this season.

On what “loophole” does the Messianic hope rest? Who were the Magi? And why a “virgin birth?” What does a Christmas Tree have to do with it?

CHANCES ARE, Jesus isn’t who you think He is. No matter what you may have read before about this first-century rabbi from Nazareth, there’s a good possibility that you’ve been misinformed. In fact, maybe you’ve been wrong from the start about the most amazing man who ever walked the surface of the earth.

Many people who knew Jesus understood Him well enough to admire Him, to respect Him, and to love Him. Others were terrified of Him. Some of His own relatives said He was out of His mind. The politically and religiously intolerant leaders of first-century Israel hated Him. So they murdered Him. But that wasn’t the end of the story. Not by a long shot.

Today, more than twenty centuries later, respected Bible scholars Dr. Chuck Missler and Dr. William Welty bring Jesus of Nazareth to you in the most unconventional way possible... by bringing Jesus of Nazareth to talk in His very own words about Himself, His purpose, His nature, and His mission.

- Did Melchizedek have a temple that predated Solomon’s?
- Is the Jewish Kingdom as portrayed in the Old Testament simply an intermediate parenthesis within a larger expanse?
- Why are the distinctives so divergent from the enforced separation of the kingship and priesthood under David?
- Were the bread and wine served by Melchizedek eschatological? Did they embrace the Cross? (They, too, echo across the pages of the OT)
- Was the Lord’s Communion anticipated in Gen. 14?

These studies may challenge many of the comfortable traditions that have shaped our classic Biblical perspectives.
HISTORY

Roots of War: Profiling the Middle East

Dr. Chuck Missler

As diligent Bible students, most of us are familiar with the emergence of the empires that were profiled in Daniel 1 and Daniel 7; the Babylonian, Persian, Greek and Roman empires. However, many of us are probably a little hazy about the tide of events subsequent to that period.

Find out what is really going on in the Middle East.

In this comprehensive overview of India, Pakistan, Iraq, Iran, Saudi Arabia, Egypt, Jordan, Turkey and Israel, Chuck covers the background of each country as well as their military strengths, political agendas, historical roots, religious affiliations and what role they each play in Bible prophecy.

Temple

Bob Cornuke

In a book that is being heralded as “an investigative masterpiece” with “astounding archaeological and prophetic implications,” TEMPLE: Amazing New Discoveries That Change Everything About the Location of Solomon’s Temple, by Robert Cornuke, is sending shockwaves through the Jewish, Muslim, and Christian worlds.

Can you imagine the upheaval in political and religious thinking if the Temple Mount in Jerusalem is not the site of Solomon’s and Herod’s temples? And what if the stones of the Wailing Wall are not what tradition says? In this highly researched, exciting book, the author proposes from current archaeological excavations and Scriptural corroboration that the true temple location is not where tradition teaches. This is must reading for anyone who wants to fit together the pieces of Biblical records, current geo-politics, and prophecy.
How to Study the Bible

Dr. Chuck Missler

Which translation is best? Which Study Bible? What are the secrets of resolving difficult or controversial passages?

From forty years of intensive Bible study and teaching, Missler shares his favorite helps, secrets and practical suggestions on how to take the Bible seriously.

Most Christians, although they want to do in-depth Bible study, know little of the types, philosophies and tools of study available. Is the Bible to be taken literally or figuratively? What study aids would be most helpful in beginning my own home study library?

Going through the Bible book by book. “Eat the elephant one bite at a time.” These studies produce the most lasting results. There is a balance in the “whole counsel of God.” (Emmaus Road in Luke 24:27).

Where to start?

A good “first book” is the Gospel of John: “A child can wade in it and an elephant can bathe in it!” Other good starting points include Genesis, Acts, Matthew, Daniel, and Revelation (which is the only book which unequivocally promises a blessing to the reader). You are unique: let the Spirit lead you.
DOCTRINE

The Fulcrum of the Entire Universe

Dr. Chuck Missler

Isaiah 53 is one of the most astonishing passages in the entire Bible: It is often called “The Holy of Holies” of the Old Testament. However, it is even more broadly impacting than most people realize; that’s why we call it, “The Fulcrum of the Entire Universe.” Its reach includes the entire creation.

Clearly, its most devotional significance details our personal salvation: indeed, the entire New Testament is summarized in its remarkable 12 verses. Yet it also includes some of the most astonishing apologetic insights in the entire Bible. Rich rewards for the diligent.

The Origin of Evil

Dr. Chuck Missler

When did Satan fall?

We know that the angels were created prior to the Earth. We find Satan had already fallen in Genesis 3. The mystery is, when did he fall? It appears that there are substantial Scriptural references to his rebellion, his agenda, and the subsequent catastrophic judgment that ensued.

This raises the whole issue of the origin of evil. And why hasn’t God simply wiped him, and sin, out completely? It is also disturbing to recognize that Satan tempted Jesus by offering him the kingdom, power and the glory in the temptations recorded in Luke 5. How could Satan lay a legitimate claim to these?
Eternal Security

Dr. Chuck Missler

One of Christianity’s most controversial issues and one of our most frequently asked questions - involves the concept of Eternal Security. There are good scholars on all sides of this issue, yet we felt it would be useful to explain our own views on this highly charged subject.

We believe that the root problem stems from a lack of precision in our definitions. Earl Rademacher brings this to light when he declares that, “I have been saved; I am being saved; and, I will be saved.” He is simply highlighting the three tenses of salvation.

Inheritance & Rewards

Dr. Chuck Missler

Are all believers going to be equal in heaven? Wasn’t it all decided at the cross? Is there a difference between overcoming sin and bearing fruit?

Inheritance came to the firstborn son by virtue of his birth. Whether he actually secured it depended upon his obedience and the father’s choice. Inheritance was subject to condition and obedience. The Abrahamic Inheritance was based on Divine Oath, conditioned on obedience.

Inheritances could be forfeited. The Exodus Generation was promised an inheritance, but failed to obtain it at Kadesh -Barnea. Israel was God’s “firstborn son”, yet only 2 of over 2 million took possession of their inheritance. Even Moses was excluded due to his disobedience. Esau sold his inheritance for a bowl of pottage.

We have been promised an inheritance in the Kingdom to come. But is there more required of us than just our acceptance? Does behavior in this life really influence our future?

Heaven and Hell

Dr. Chuck Missler

What Happens When You Die?

We don’t like to think about death. It’s not a pleasant subject, and we avoid even discussing it seriously or giving it any diligent study. Yet our appointment with death is the most certain event in our future. We all know of personal examples when death has come suddenly to people, without warning, without preparations; car accidents, stray bullets, unforeseen strokes. When it comes our time, what do we expect death to be like? How will we enter eternity?
Jesus: Who & Why?
Dr. Chuck Missler

Just who is Jesus Christ? What did Jesus actually accomplish? Jesus Christ is not “a concept,” an “idea,” or a “useful traditional value.” He is an actual living person who came to accomplish a specific purpose that prevails over everything else: His achievement continues to impact you and me, and determines our eternal destiny.

He is the fulfillment of a pervasive promise made before the foundation of the world and the very standard by which the entire universe, and everything in it, will be judged!

The Holy Spirit
Ron Matsen

In 1 Corinthians chapter 12 the apostle Paul writes, “Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I do not want you to be ignorant.” Sadly, today many Christians are poorly equipped to understand what the Bible has to say about the Holy Spirit.

To comprehend the character and conduct of the Holy Spirit you must understand that He is a Person, that He is God, and that He has a specific purpose.

This four-part study explores these topics related to the Holy Spirit:

- Part 4 – “The Fruit of the Holy Spirit”

The Rapture
Dr. Chuck Missler

There continue to be many questions concerning the “Rapture” of the Church and its apparent contrast with the “Second Coming” of Jesus Christ. Where does this strange view come from? Is the term “rapture” even in the Bible?

Clearly, the idea of the Rapture can be considered the most preposterous belief in Biblical Christianity. The situation regarding the doctrine of the Rapture is painfully similar to the famous quote by Dr. Richard Feynman, speaking of quantum physics:

“I think it is safe to say that no one understands quantum mechanics... in fact, it is often stated of all the theories proposed in this century, the silliest is quantum theory. Some say that the only thing that quantum theory has going for it, in fact, is that it is unquestionably correct.”
The Great Commission

Ron Matsen

The last commandment of Jesus before His ascension was for His disciples to “go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature.” The apostle Paul tells us, “How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher?”

- How seriously should we personally take this command today?
- Is this command somehow only limited to those who feel they have the gift of evangelism?
- What needs to be said, understood, and believed for a person to be born-again?

Join Ron Matsen as he explores the subject of “The Great Commission” and gives practical insight into this calling to every Christian. After all, it’s a matter of LIFE and DEATH to those waiting to hear your message of reconciliation.

Israel and The Church

Dr. Chuck Missler

- Has God abandoned Israel?
- Has the Church “replaced” Israel?
- What does the Bible say?

As we watch the world events, it is clear that Israel is following her prophetic scenario, and a new chapter is about to be written—and there may be a big surprise on our near horizon!
The Romance of Redemption
Dr. Chuck Missler

The Book of Ruth is venerated in college literature classes as one of the most elegant love stories of all time. What most people don’t realize is that it is one of the most significant “New Testament” books located in the Old Testament—and it stands as a pivotal study in Bible Prophecy! It is an essential prerequisite to understanding the Book of Revelation!

This tiny, 4-chapter book is one of the most inexhaustible sources of spiritual insight in the entire Bible. While it has been summarized in many of Chuck’s broader studies, Chuck explores the many surprises hidden in the text of this charming treasure (including some hidden secrets that will astonish most Biblical scholars!) Every detail of the text will evidence a skillful design beyond the skills of any human editor.

The Gospel
Ron Matsen

One of the last instructions given by Jesus to the Church was, “Go into all the world and preach the gospel.” (Mark 16:15)

The fact is most Christians don’t know how to share their faith effectively. Sadly, many of the people they know in the world today are wandering around, lost and without hope, having never heard the wonderful Message of Reconciliation.

Join Ron Matsen as he explores the subject of “The Gospel – The Message of Reconciliation” and gives practical insight into how to share the essential doctrines of salvation.
Family Matters Vol. 1 - Survival Guide for Your Marriage:
The institution of marriage was created by God before the fall of man. Genesis 2:24 tells us “a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and they shall become one flesh.”

Family Matters Vol. 2 - Survival Guide for Your Home:
Today, a hostile invasion is storming into our homes aimed at the most intimate areas of our life. Most homes are truly “unwalled cities.”

Family Matters Vol. 3 - Survival Guide for Your Children:
Your children will always need good guidance, regardless of their age; and you, as their parent, should be their first port of call when it comes to gaining direction on the uncertain sea of life.

Join Ron Matsen from the Executive Briefing Room of the River Lodge, New Zealand, as he examines what the Bible has to say about marriage, your home, and parenting.
Footprints of the Messiah

Dr. Chuck Missler

What Old Testament Bible Study is mentioned twelve times in one book of the Bible, is given by seven different people and is almost never given today?

That Jesus is the Messiah of Israel! How certain can we be that Jesus is the Messiah?

Review some of the major passages in the Tanakh (the Old Testament) which predict and describe the Scriptural expectations to be fulfilled by the Messiah of Israel. This study will also take a mathematical analysis of a small sampling from the more than 300 predictions concerning the Jewish Messiah.

The Once & Future Church

Dr. Chuck Missler

Over the many decades that I have enjoyed my love affair with the Bible, the greatest personal growth I’ve ever witnessed occurred in a home Bible study. The fellowship of those intimate home groups, where people can interact, ask questions, and hold one another accountable, was the place of growth for all of us -- teacher and student.

Today, too many people get lost in church and are only getting a surface skimming of the Word of God. We encourage you not only to continue attending your current fellowship, but if you are not also presently in a small, weekly, Bible study group, we strongly encourage you to find one and give it a try. You may be in for a truly life-changing surprise.

The Spiritual Gifts

Dr. Chuck Missler

The apostle Paul told the Corinthian Christians, “Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.”

- Who or what is the Holy Spirit?
- What are the gifts of the Spirit?
- Are the gifts of the Spirit for today?
- Do all Christians have spiritual gifts?
- What is the greatest sign of being filled with the Holy Spirit?
What Is Truth?

Dr. Chuck Missler

• How do we know what is really true?
• How do we know that the Bible is true?
• How sure can we be?

We live in a skeptical environment, where even the very existence of truth is questioned. Lately, the Bible - and even the Lord Jesus Himself - has been under attack.

Discovering God

Ron Matsen

The beginning of a person’s reconciliation with God is their recognition of God. The argument for and against the existence of God has raged for ages. Yet proving the existence of God is an understanding that comes from an “aggregate of thoughts” knit together with “summary logic.”

• Can the existence of God be proven?
• What are the classic arguments for the existence of God?
• If an infinite God exists, how can He be understood by finite man?

Defending the Bible

Ron Matsen

For salvation, Man must understand the purpose and power of the Bible. But how do we explain our faith? If we only rely on our personal experience to explain our faith, we are no different than any other religious mystic.

• Can the Bible be trusted or has it been corrupted over time?
• How do we defend the Bible as the inerrant Word of God?
• What does the Bible reveal about God and us?

Death of Discernment

Ron Matsen

Of all the end-time themes discussed in the Bible, “deception and apostasy in the church” is listed more times than any other end-time “sign of the times.”

Are we currently living in the Age of Apostasy? Ron Matsen explores the evidence and causes of apostasy and provides an antidote for apostasy in this timely study.
The Christmas Story

Dr. Chuck Missler

Dr. Chuck Missler, a widely recognized Biblical authority, updated his classic study of Christmas in 2007. He explores the background, and myths, surrounding our favorite holiday.

- What really happened in Bethlehem two thousand years ago?
- Who were the “Magi”?
- Why a virgin birth?
- What does a Christmas Tree have to do with it?

Each year at Christmas we celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ.

After the New Year, we struggle to remember to add a year as we date our checks, which should remind us that the entire Western World reckons its calendar from the birth of the One who changed the world more than any other before or since.

It is disturbing to discover that much of what we have been taught about the Christmas season seems to be more tradition than truth. Santa Claus isn’t the only myth or legend that has arisen out of this season.

On what “loophole” does the Messianic hope rest? Who were the Magi? And why a “virgin birth”? What does a Christmas Tree have to do with it?

The Easter Story

Dr. Chuck Missler

What Really Happened?

Most reasonably informed Christians are well aware that many of the traditions that surround the Christmas holidays have pagan origins and very little correlation with the actual events as recorded in the Bible. However, most of us are surprised when we discover that some of what we have been taught about Easter is not only in error, but deliberately so!

Human Nature

Ron Matsen

What does it mean to be human? The Bible tells us that man is “fearfully and wonderfully made.”

- How do we understand our makeup and does it make a difference?
- What is the meaning of being “created in the image of God”?
- What causes our natural responses and can we change this behavior?
The Beginning of Wisdom
Dr. Chuck Missler
“The fear of God is the beginning of wisdom.”
Proverbs 9:10
How do we balance the awesome majesty due to the Creator and Ruler of the universe with the gracious family intimacy that is now available to us through the completed work of Christ?
What does His Holiness demand of us, personally?
What are the hazards of failing to render the Almighty His due, while availing ourselves the riches committed to us in the precious promises in His Word?
How do we deal with these paramount issues facing us daily in practical challenges?
Chuck Missler grapples with these wildly misunderstood tensions with down-to-earth frankness and Biblically based candor.

The Whole Counsel of God
Dr. Chuck Missler
Our Lord repeatedly instructed us: “Be not deceived.”
That is an imperative: a command, not simply a suggestion. But how? What are the tools to prevent our being deceived or misled?
The context of a passage is always a primary consideration in the search for understanding of a passage of Scripture. It is often cited, “A verse out of context is a pretext.” And, indeed, one must always maintain an awareness of both who is doing the speaking and the audience being addressed. However, this foundational emphasis can also be a restrictive blindfold to some of a passage’s deeper (and broader) implications.
The Love of God

Ron Matsen

Every major theistic religion in the world encourages its followers to “Love God,” which is usually expressed through religious rituals. Christianity alone tells its followers that “God Loves them.” This love is understood and enjoyed through a personal relationship with Him. God’s Love for us creates a Love for God which creates a Love for God’s ways.

Join Ron Matsen as he explores the subject of “The Love of God,” beginning with a study that unpacks 1 John 3:1 word-by-word to discover the incredible message of God’s Love for mankind. Ron then examines how God displays that Love to a lost and dying world.

The Feasts of Israel

Dr. Chuck Missler & Dr. Dan Stolebarger

The Feasts of Israel, set by God, are not only commemorative in a historical context, but are also prophetic.

The first three feasts in the 1st month point to the Messiah’s First Coming; the last three feasts in the 7th month, to His Second Coming. The middle feast highlights the Church, in more ways than is generally recognized.

This briefing reveals the rich background of these feasts with many surprises for the Biblical believer, and yet only scratches the surface. The first half of this briefing pack is taught by Chuck Missler with the later half taught by Dan Stolebarger.
The Reemergence of Assyria?

Ron Matsen

The rapid rise of the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria (ISIS) has caused many in the world to wonder at its apocalyptic implications. We will examine this emerging problem with what I like to call the “Issachar Challenge.” Therefore, we need to address three questions concerning this area of the world: What is its history? Who are its leaders? What is its prophetic destiny?

When you consider the coalescences of current events in the former region of Assyria with Biblical precedents and prophecies, it should not seem strange to see this region of the world once again at the center of the world’s prophetic stage. The question is, “What should we be doing during this time of great uncertainty?”

Behold a White Horse: The Coming World Leader

The final world dictator seeking global domination will also be an “Assyrian” who is here characterized by a bow, riding a white horse. It is interesting how many confuse this counterfeit with the rider of the white horse in Revelation 19.

“Behold a White Horse” explores the career of the first of these “Four Horsemen” who seems to have at least 33 titles in the Old Testament and 13 in the New Testament and the common term “AntiChrist” really isn’t one of them. We also explore the only physical description of him in the Scripture!

Behold a Red Horse: Wars and Rumors of Wars

Dr. Chuck Missler, an honor graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, with an international background including three decade’s experience in the board rooms of the defense industry, reviews the major Biblical references to warfare, the trends in modern weapons technology, and some of the current preparations for war among the major powers.

Behold a Black Horse: Economic Upheaval and Famine

Most famines are the direct results of government’s deliberate decisions. Germany sank into the most severe hyperinflationary period in recorded history after printing 1.3 trillion marks: that translates to about 4 trillion in today’s dollars. Ironically, that is almost exactly the same amount of money the United States government has printed since 2008.

Behold a Livid Horse: Emergent Diseases and Biochemical Warfare

Why are previously conquered diseases now making a comeback? How real is the threat of biological terrorism? Why is it more dangerous than chemical terrorism? Was the AIDS virus deliberately designed? By whom? And why? Is there any truth behind an agenda to control (and reduce) the world’s population? By whom? And why? Who are the two riders associated with the Livid Horse? How do they differ?
In this study of Daniel’s 70 Weeks, you will discover this amazing prophecy in the Old Testament predicted the very day that Jesus presented Himself as the Meschiach Nagid, the Messiah the King, to Jerusalem.

The Seventy Week Prophecy of Daniel 9 includes the most incredible validation of Jesus Christ as the Messiah, which He held His people accountable to have known.

In a confidential briefing to His disciples, Jesus also highlights this passage as the key to understanding all other prophecies concerning His return.

It is essential to understanding the Book of Revelation and other related passages.

Jesus warns the dwellers in Judea that when they see the “Abomination of Desolation” - a desecrating idol installed in the Holy of Holies of the Temple - to flee to the mountains. The remnant of Israel will find refuge there for three and a half years while God protects them and provides for them. In this study, Chuck explores some of the less familiar prophecies of the End Times, the Tribulation, and the Second Coming of Jesus Christ.
Dr. Chuck Missler & Ron Matsen

Dr. Chuck Missler outlines our current economic predicament and offers defensive steps you can take to lessen the impact of the impending economic crisis. Chuck shares some key strategies to prepare yourself spiritually and practically.

- Is the World facing another major economic upheaval?
- What is the best strategy to protect your family in times of economic uncertainty?

The Church has enjoyed a relatively peaceful existence in the West for a few centuries but the with the coming persecution, how do we go about organizing home study and home-church?

Church in the End Times

Dr. Chuck Missler

What are Christians called to do during these turbulent times? How can you make a difference in your family, among your friends and within your community?

This follows the wonderful success of the Weathering the Coming Storm series where Dr. Chuck Missler and Ron Matsen dealt with global, national, and personal issues impacting all of our lives today. Church in the End Times serves as the NEXT STEP in equipping ourselves with the tools and insights we need to be a guiding light to a world coping in the Last Days darkness of chaos and deceit.

Leadership for the End Times

Ron Matsen

- Are “leadership skills” only something for a select few or can everyone benefit from understanding what the Bible says about leadership?
- What are Christians called to do during these turbulent times?
- How can you make a difference in your family, among your friends and within your community?

This follows the wonderful success of the Weathering the Coming Storm series where Ron Matsen and Dr. Chuck Missler dealt with global, national, and personal issues impacting all of our lives today. Leadership for the End Times serves as the NEXT STEP in equipping ourselves with the tools and insights we need to be a guiding light to a world coping in the Last Days darkness of chaos and deceit.
The End Times Scenario

Dr. Chuck Missler

Many people are becoming increasingly conscious that we are entering a unique phase of human history. Some are terrified. Some are predicting cosmic doom on the near horizon. Others are making astonishing predictions. What does the Bible really say?

Eschatology (the Study of “Last Things”) is among the most challenging avenues of study, even for the most sophisticated.

- What are the “real” End Time events?
- Does the Church go through the Great Tribulation?
- Which Kingdom do we pray for in the Lord’s Prayer?
- Is there really a “Battle of Armageddon”? Why?
- What Scripture did Jesus deliberately leave out in Nazareth?
- Who is the “AntiChrist”? Is he alive today?
- Should we expect a literal Babylon on the horizon?

The Magog Invasion

Dr. Chuck Missler

For many years we have been following the conventional view of Ezekiel 38 and 39. With the growing tensions between Iran and Israel, these passages are the subject of much current debate. However, the conventional view still leaves a number of puzzling inconsistencies and contradictions. Ezekiel 38 indicates that Israel is dwelling safely and “without walls.” Yet, with walls being built and missiles landing each day Israel is hardly dwelling in peace. This leaves us with a puzzling anomaly: the players listed in Ezekiel seen to exclude any of the bordering nations: Where are the Palestinians? The Lebanese? The Syrians? The Iraqis? The Jordanians? The Egyptians?
Dr. Chuck Missler

Through careful exegesis, Chuck Missler posits that the Biblical track record in accurate prophecy offers understanding of likely future events across the ever-changing globe. But he doesn’t engage in guess-work. Instead, Missler:

- examines important trends on today’s geopolitical and technological horizons through the eyes of Scripture’s prophetic calendar:
- analyzes the likely end-time effects of global changes, from the nature of modern weaponry to the implications of the world’s attitude toward the nation of Islam:
- highlights our resulting spiritual responsibilities in scientific, social, and political arenas.

Prophecy 20/20 condenses many challenging concepts into remarkably clear information about where we are on God’s timetable.

Dr. Chuck Missler

The Bible contains 8,362 predictive verses about 737 different matters and yet prophecy is one of the most neglected subjects in the Church today. Understanding prophecy is an essential and fundamental issue for every serious Christian. But where do we start?

This series has been designed to give you a strategic overview of prophecy: past, present and future. This series will encourage the new believer and strengthen the faith of all who study it. Now, more than ever, it is important that we have answers for people who are seeking the truth. We need to equip ourselves to be ready to give an answer to every man for the hope that lies within us.
The Manifesto of our King

Dr. Chuck Missler

The Sermon on the Mount is the manifesto of our King and the platform of the Prince of Peace. And it’s the Law! It goes vastly beyond the Law of Moses. It is the Ten Commandments amplified and expanded. It raises the law to the nth degree.

As the Law of the Kingdom, it is the highest ethical teaching in the Bible. It will be the law of this world during the Millennium, and then it will find full fruition. Christ will reign on earth in person and will enforce every word of it. The Sermon on the Mount will finally prevail when He whose right it is to rule shall come.

Thy Kingdom Come

Dr. Chuck Missler

In this briefing pack Thy Kingdom Come, Chuck Missler gives insight into the questions, Are you ready? Do you understand? Does your present behavior matter later?

“Thy Kingdom come....” (Matt 6:10) is part of the “Lord’s Prayer” and yet few Christians have any idea what it is really about. Not only were we instructed to pray for its coming but it is the first thing we are to pray for! Now is the time to prepare for its coming. Gabriel promised Mary that Jesus would sit upon the Throne of David. Has this happened yet? Is there a relationship between the Millennium and the Davidic Kingdom.

Storm Warning

Dr. Chuck Missler & Dr. Gordon McDonald

The coming years promise to be the most challenging opportunity of our lifetimes. Non-linearities are compounding on our personal and national horizons that will test our preparations and our commitment to our callings...

Dr. Chuck Missler and Dr. Gordon McDonald discuss the lessons learned from Y2K and how they relate to providing a “Storm Warning” on the horizon. How bad is the United States government debt? Can we truly grasp the value of a trillion? Has God abandoned the United States? Find out in this briefing.
The Da Vinci Deception

Dr. Chuck Missler

Dan Brown’s bestselling book, The Da Vinci Code is a real page-turner but constitutes an intentional and very malicious attack on the person of Jesus Christ and Christianity. It has caused much confusion among those inadequately informed about the origins of the Gospels and the history of the early church.

While it is admittedly a work of fiction, it presents, in advance, a series of statements which Brown declares are true and accurate that are not Brown’s deliberate twisting and distortion of facts throughout the book are cleverly crafted to mislead the uninformed.

The many questions deriving from the outrageous heresies promoted by the book will be answered in this briefing. Chuck includes insights - and hidden codes - which appear to have been missed in the deluge of critiques the book has stimulated.

Kabbalah

Dr. Chuck Missler

Whether disillusioned by the self-imposed blinders and myopia of contemporary “science,” or frustrated by the moral bankruptcy of unbridled materialism, increasing numbers of desperate people are now seeking “answers” outside the realm of natural phenomena and are pursuing the supernatural. The anguished plea of the disenfranchised now begs the question, “Is there anyone out there?”

Beyond the beguiling allure of many contemporary forms of ancient paganism, such as the New Age, Wicca, and others, many people have become attracted to a form of Hebrew mysticism known as Kabbalah. The popular press is speckled with articles of prominent Hollywood personalities who have taken up a popular contemporary version of Kabbalah

It is particularly paradoxical to find these occultic practices embedded within Judaism, despite the numerous explicit prohibitions against all forms of the occult recorded throughout the very Torah that is so highly venerated among the Jews. . .

...Anyone with a modicum of Biblical literacy should realize that occult practices are expressly prohibited in the Scriptures. Scripture condemns by name spiritism, mediumism (channeling) and necromancy, and various forms of sorcery and divination, including astrology and magic.

In ancient Israel, divination was a capital crime: if someone was caught casting a horoscope, or other occultic practice, they were put to death. Why?

Because God is jealous of His uniqueness, and He alone knows what the future holds. To intrude on His office is to attempt to intrude on His glory. Occult activity also courts deception and betrayal from the demonic realm, and promotes evil under the guise of legitimate religious practice. Occult involvement will eventually lead to judgment for those who refuse to forsake it.
There continues to be many questions concerning the “Rapture” of the Church and its apparent contrast with the “Second Coming” of Jesus Christ. Where does this strange view come from? Is the term “rapture” even in the Bible?

Clearly, the idea of the Rapture can be considered the most preposterous belief in Biblical Christianity. The situation regarding the doctrine of the Rapture is painfully similar to the famous quote by Dr. Richard Feynman, speaking of quantum physics:

“I think it is safe to say that no one understands quantum mechanics... in fact, it is often stated of all the theories proposed in this century, the silliest is quantum theory. Some say that the only thing that quantum theory has going for it, in fact, is that it is unquestionably correct.”

Daniel's 70 Weeks

In this study of Daniel's 70 Weeks, you will discover this amazing prophecy in the Old Testament predicted the very day that Jesus presented Himself as the Meschiach Nagid, the Messiah the King, to Jerusalem.

The Seventy Week Prophecy of Daniel 9 includes the most incredible validation of Jesus Christ as the Messiah, which He held them accountable to have known.

In a confidential briefing to His disciples, Jesus also highlights this passage as the key to understanding all other prophecies concerning His return.

It is essential to understanding the Book of Revelation and other related passage

The Angels Series

Angels, Volume I: The Angelic Realm

For thousands of years most people have either had or still hold to misconceptions, myths, legends, or traditions about angels and our own reality. In this study we will deal with these fascinating entities.

A hidden army of protection: A reality that is normally hidden from our view. But are they real? What are the discoveries on the advance of science that may shed light on our understanding of them?

Angels, Volume II: The Invisible War

Volume two of a two part series, this DVD deals with many of the questions you may have such as: What is Hell, Hades and Gehenna? How do Demons differ from Angels and what’s their limitations and agenda? What is Satan’s origin, agenda and destiny? What is the Age of Hybrids? How do we prepare ourselves through Spiritual hygiene and the Armor of God?

Angels, Volume III: The Denizens of the Metacosm

Volume 3 explores the contradictory behavior of UFOs and other demonic deceptions characteristic of the End Times.

Are they real? Why do UFOs enjoy a military classification higher than our most sensitive weapons systems? Why are the events which occurred in Roswell New Mexico still classified after 66 years? Why is the Vatican openly preparing to receive an Alien Visitor? How should a Christian deal with the occurrences of Alien abductions? Jesus admonished us to “Be not deceived.” How? How do we prepare for the deception which, “if it were possible, would deceive the very elect”?
Return of the Nephilim

Dr. Chuck Missler

- What’s behind the UFOs?
- Where are they from?
- Are they the Nephilim of ages past?
- What does the Bible say about them?
- What’s their agenda for Planet Earth?

This subject has not gone away. On the contrary, much new evidence has surfaced with global implications. Chuck explores the Biblical relevance and disturbing agenda of the apparent extraterrestrial life forms that have been forcing themselves into our global consciousness and reveals their most disturbing agenda.

“For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.” Matthew 24:24

How do you protect yourself?

Alien Encounters Conference

Dr. Chuck Missler & Mark Eastman

- Session One: “Return of the Nephilim,” by Chuck Missler
- Session Two: “Days of Noah,” by Chuck Missler
- Session Three: “The History of UFOs,” by Mark Eastman
- Session Four: “Alien Contact?” by Mark Eastman
- Session Five: “Chariots of the Frauds,” by Mark Eastman
- Session Six: “The Coming Cosmic Deception,” by Chuck Missler

Alien Encounters

Dr. Chuck Missler & Mark Eastman

- What is behind UFO sightings?
- Are they real?
- Where are they from?
- What does the Bible say about them?
- Are they friendly or hostile?

This book confronts the issues head-on and offers answers to many of the most pertinent questions, including a new chapter on government disinformation and possible cover-ups.
Beyond Time & Space

- Are there more than four dimensions to physical reality?
- Is it possible to traverse time as well as space?

The startling discovery of modern science is that our physical universe is actually finite. Scientists now acknowledge that the universe had a beginning. This is, of course, what the Bible has maintained throughout its 66 books.

Beyond Coincidence

Is our universe some kind of cosmic accident, or is it the result of careful and skillful design? When compiling the many physical and mathematical subtleties which make up our universe, scientists have discovered that a slight variation in any of them militates against the existence of life. Even secular science refers to these appearances of apparent design as the “anthropic principle,” since they yield the impression that the universe was designed specifically for man.

Beyond Perception

There seems to be evidence to suggest that our world and everything in it are only ghostly images: projections from a level of reality so beyond our own that the real reality is literally beyond both space and time.

Beyond Newton

Astronomers explain their views relying on the 17th and 18th century tools of their forefathers, Kepler and Newton: gravity, fluid mechanics, and the magnetism of loadstone, rather than those of the 19th century - James Clerk Maxwell and electromagnetic field theory. Beyond Newton explores the challenges to current astronomy by scientists who have discovered that the entire volume of our galaxy is filled with diffuse clouds of magnetized plasma - electrically charged ionized particles.
Dr. Chuck Missler

• Do the bright prospects of Biotech justify tampering with mechanisms far from being understood?
• Will the Biotech revolution cast a dark shadow over the first half of the 21st century as nuclear technology did over the last century?

The astonishing advances in the field of microbiology now offer new remedies for many of mankind’s most illusive and devastating diseases and even many genetic defects. However, these promises are not without a potential dark side.

Dr. Chuck Missler surveys some of the most promising prospects and reviews the types of ventures emerging. He also reveals some concerns growing among the informed, as well as some of the provocative Biblical implications.

Dr. Chuck Missler

Read the implications of our finite universe and the shocking discoveries of quantum physics at the very boundaries of reality and learn their significance to our origin and personal destinies!

Your excitement will grow as Chuck Missler details astonishing hidden messages within the text of the Torah that could only have been placed there by the Great Author Himself. He explores the impact of information sciences on our understanding of ancient texts... including microcodes, macrocodes, and metacodes...as well as the highly controversial “equidistant letter sequences” discovered in the Bible. You will be able to use this exciting information to discover the hidden messages yourself because many of them do not require a computer to decipher.

Stephen C. Meyer, PhD

The foundations of scientific materialism are in the process of crumbling. Philosopher of science Stephen C. Meyer shows how the digital code in DNA points powerfully to a designing intelligence behind the origin of life.

Unlike previous arguments for intelligent design, DNA By Design presents a radical and comprehensive new case, revealing the evidence not merely of individual features of biological complexity but rather of a fundamental constituent of the universe: information.
Dr. Chuck Missler

Hidden Treasures

For the novice as well as the sophisticate, this DVD is full of surprises. It includes subtle discoveries lying just “beneath” the text -- hidden messages, encryptions, deliberate misspellings and other amendments to the text -- that present implications beyond the immediate context, demonstrating a skilful design that has its origin from outside our space and time. Drawing upon over forty years of collecting, Chuck highlights in this study many of the precious nuggets that have become characteristic of his popular Bible studies around the world.

It is guaranteed to stimulate, prove, and hopefully, disturb. It will confound the skeptic and encourage the believer. It is a “must” for every thinking seeker of truth and serious inquirer of reality.

Dr. Chuck Missler

Signs in the Heavens

• Is there a message hidden behind the “Signs of the Zodiac?”
• Are there secrets hidden in the original names of the constellations?

What we know as the “Signs of the Zodiac” is known in Hebrew as “the Mazzeroth.” This briefing pack explores the possibility that the Mazzeroth, the pre-Babylonian original, anticipated God’s total plan for mankind.

The Long Day of Joshua

The recent insights from celestial mechanics, including orbital resonance, may shed new light on the famous Biblical Battle of Beth-Horon (Joshua Chapter 10) and suggest the possibility that the Planet Mars may have been a fearsome participant.

Dr. Chuck Missler

Technology & the Bible

“Except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect’s sake those days shall be shortened:”

We take passages in the Bible for granted, often failing to recognize the technological changes that are implied by them. In this briefing we’ve assembled a small sampling of technology statements, which we hope will reveal a perspective that may surprise many.
The “Creator” Series

Dr. Chuck Missler & Dr. Mark Eastman

Astonishing discoveries have surfaced which point to the existence of a transcendent extra-dimensional Creator. Furthermore, numerous recent discoveries now confirm the incredible scientific and historical accuracy of the Bible, as well as the supernatural origin of its texts.

This includes all of these great studies:

- The Creator Beyond Time and Space
- The Bible: An Extraterrestrial Message
- Immanuel: The Deity of Messiah
- The Divine Watchmaker

The Holographic Universe

Dr. Chuck Missler

There seems to be evidence to suggest that our world and everything in it are only ghostly images: projections from a level of reality so beyond our own that the real reality is literally beyond both space and time. The main architect of this astonishing idea is one of the world’s most eminent thinkers - physicist David Bohm, a protégé of Einstein’s. In this executive summary, Chuck gives a current perspective on some of the areas that define our reality.

- Could the Cosmos be a Super-Hologram?
- What is one of the fundamental errors commonly made in the field of Astronomy?
- What is the Nature of Reality?
- What are the implications of this understanding?

The Hybrid Age

Dr. Chuck Missler and Tom Horn

In recent years, astonishing technological developments have pushed the frontiers of humanity toward a far-reaching transformation that promises in the very near future to redefine what it means to be human.

As a result, new modes of perception between things visible and invisible are expected to challenge the Church in ways that are unprecedented. The destiny of each individual—as well as the future of their family will depend on the knowledge of this new paradigm and their preparedness to face it head on.
The Physics of Immortality

Dr. Chuck Missler

This is an intensive review of what the Apostle Paul calls the most important chapter in the Bible: 1 Corinthians 15. Without it, “we are of all men most miserable.”

Did Jesus really rise from the dead? How do we know? Do we really believe it? What kind of body did He have? Why did they have trouble recognizing Him?

How do we now know that we live within a digital virtual environment which is but “a shadow of a larger reality”? What are the implications of that “larger reality”? What is the relationship between “the twinkling of an eye” and Planck’s Constant for time \(10^{-43}\) seconds?

Koinonia Institute is an online Bible Institute with a focus on verse-by-verse study where serious Christians can grow in knowledge, understanding, awareness and commitment!

Here at KI, we delve into the relevance and reliability of Scripture, including prophetic insight both past and present.

Koinonia Institute has changed my life. It’s a thorough, exciting study and fellowship experience that is effectively equipping me to live by faith and embrace our times with Biblical confidence.

Anna – Appleton, WA

Koinonia Institute is exactly what I was looking for. It’s a unique opportunity to seriously study God’s Word and apply it to the times we are heading into.

Wes – Winnfield, LA

The Bible was intimidating and I barely scratched the surface when I read it. Through doing KI’s program, it has opened up to me as truly the living Word of God. As a young person, I now have answers about my faith.

Faith – Mollala, OR

With a large selection of both guided and self-paced courses, students can get right into studying the Word of God based on in-depth Bible commentaries, exploring Strategic Trends and current events as well as interacting with the online KI community.

The KI Resident Study Program - Take the Bible Seriously!
Journey through the whole Bible with Dr. Chuck Missler and other special speakers as you gather valuable insights into God’s "integrated message system that is from outside our time domain." Koinonia Institute offers a unique opportunity in the centre of North Island, New Zealand.
Each residential student will:
• Participate in a guided classroom environment that will be comprised of lectures, open discussions, and testing,
• Live communally with other students in the beautifully isolated grounds of The River Lodge in Reporoa, Bay of Plenty on the banks of the Waikato River, and
• Grow individually in his/her knowledge of the Bible so he/she can gain the maximum benefit of this intensive preparation experience.

Accelerated and Long Term courses available.
