How to Study the Bible by Dr. Chuck Missler

Acts 17:11

“These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.”

Behold a White Horse: The Coming World Leader
“Behold a White Horse” explores the career of the first of these “Four Horsemen” who seems to have at least 33 titles in the Old Testament and 13 in the New Testament and the common term “AntiChrist” really isn’t one of them.

Behold a Red Horse: Wars and Rumors of Wars
Dr. Chuck Missler reviews the major Biblical references to warfare, the trends in modern weapons technology, and some of the current preparations for war among the major powers.

Behold a Black Horse: Economic Upheaval and Famine
Most famines are the direct result of government’s deliberate decisions. Germany sank into the most severe hyperinflationary period in recorded history after printing 1.3 trillion marks: that translates to about 4 trillion in today’s dollars. Ironically, that is almost exactly the same amount of money the United States government has printed since 2008.

Behold a Livid Horse: Emergent Diseases and Biochemical Warfare
Why are previously conquered diseases now making a comeback? Was the AIDS virus deliberately designed? By whom? And why? Is there any truth behind an agenda to control (and reduce) the world’s population? By whom? And why? Who are the two riders associated with the Livid Horse? How do they differ?
DEAR FRIENDS

Dean Packwood
Editor, Koinonia House

Dear friends, this is a season of preparation, celebration, thanksgiving, and remembrance for many. As 2017 comes to a close and 2018 looms on the horizon we are excited to see how God is using the materials of Koinonia House to equip the Saints for the work of the ministry.

Our publishing department has been very busy of late. We are well underway in producing most of Chuck’s briefing packs as paperback books. We hope this will make Chuck’s material more accessible, especially for those that may find it difficult to keep up with Chuck’s pace in his video presentations.

Another project we’re working on is the re-publishing of Chuck’s commentary study notes (often included as PDF notes on DVD and Audio sets). We are re-editing these, both as PDFs (with a more intuitive layout, bookmarks, hyperlinks, easily identifiable sections, etc.) and as printed paperback handbooks. As you can probably imagine, some of the commentary notes contain hundreds of pages, so it’s no small task, but we’ve completed Jude and Deuteronomy thus far with many others currently in production. These will make a great addition to any study library.

In this issue of the Personal Update, Dr. Chuck Missler shares some experience in How to Study the Bible (available in paperback).

May God bless you,

In HIS service,

Dean Packwood
Editor, Koinonia House
The Bible is the Word of God.

That’s quite a statement. If we really believe that, it should change everything. We realize that the Bible is not the random jottings of ancient Hebrew sages, but a portal - a portal into the heart of our Creator. The Word of God is given to instruct and correct and guide us,[1] but it is also a weapon to protect us from the enemy of our souls.[2]

And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

1 2 Timothy 3:16
2 Ephesians 6:17

2 Timothy 3:15
For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

Hebrews 4:12

The Bible is by far the best-selling book of all time, yet thousands of Bibles sit on shelves year after year gathering dust. When we come to realize the true nature of the Bible, we understand what a terrible waste that is. We live in a world filled with deception, and the best way to recognize a lie is to already know the truth. We need to know this book that God breathed through His prophets and disciples. We need to know what it says and how to wield it in our own lives. I often say that the Bible is a message by one Author from outside our time domain, but it’s vital to know why I say that and how it’s true.

How should we study the Bible? I’m going to make some personal remarks in this book. I’ve been studying the Bible for more than sixty years, so I’ve developed my own viewpoints on matters. However, nobody should accept anything just because I’ve said it or because some other Bible teacher has said it. You have a much better tutor than me readily available to you through the person of the Holy Spirit. Research and study the Bible for yourself to determine what it says - from front to back. My foundational verse on Bible study is Acts 17:11, which tells us about the people of Berea, who:

…were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.”

Acts 17:11
We are in a predicament as human beings. We are plagued by a general spiritual blindness. Most of us cannot see past the atoms of this world into the dimensions beyond us, the dimensions of angels and demons, or of the spiritual warfare that takes place on our behalf. We get a peek in 2 Kings 6 and Daniel 10, but we cannot see the full reality ourselves.

Too many of us think of Jesus Christ as that broken carpenter hanging on a cross. We do not fully appreciate that the man who rose again on Resurrection Sunday is the King of the universe, through whom all things were made. (John 1:3) As we study the Bible, our greatest discovery will be a growing appreciation for the person and identity of Jesus, the Messiah of Israel and Creator and Lord of all things.

The Age of Deceit

It has become increasingly politically incorrect to be a Bible believer. It’s strange to realize that many church congregations are embarrassed by people who take the Bible seriously. Our culture is apathetic to the very idea of truth. It used to be the dream of American mothers and fathers for their children to go off to college and learn, to become good thinkers and moral people able to distinguish right from wrong. Today, students go to college to be told there is no right and wrong. They are told, “You have your truth and I have mine.” The value of relativism has had tragic consequences.

Satan was a liar and a murderer from the beginning (John 8:44), and his goal is to deceive us. The only remedy, the only inoculation we can get to protect us from deceit is for us to do our homework. Benjamin Franklin is often misquoted as saying, “a jack of all trades and a master of none.” It’s actually, “a jack of all trades and a master of one.” In other words, an educated person should know a little about everything, but know everything about one thing. If we are Christians, we should be a master of the Bible. We should know it inside and out. As Christians, we don’t just represent ourselves. We are ambassadors for Jesus Christ, and it’s vital that we represent Him faithfully. We cannot do that well if we do not know the Bible - and not just parts of the Bible taken out of context, but the Bible as a whole.
It’s my premise that we cannot understand God’s Word by spending 45 minutes at it once a week listening to a sermon (which may or may not dig into the Bible at all). We need to be involved in dedicated personal study.

Prerequisites to Study

I’m going to suggest there are a couple of preconditions you should have in place before you start your study of God’s Word. These are important. We want to get all we can out of our Bible study. We don’t want it to be a dry lump of wordy onion-skin papers that hit us in the face but don’t dig deep into our hearts and souls.

First, ask Jesus Christ to be Lord of your life. This is vital, because when the Holy Spirit comes and dwells in us, He is the one who leads us into all truth. In John 3, Jesus told Nicodemus that he had to be born again, and that applies to all of us. People who aren’t saved can read the Bible and learn from it, but it’s the Holy Spirit who brings the Bible to life in our minds and hearts:

> Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

_John 14:17_

> But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:

_John 15:26_

> Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

_John 16:13_
Many people don’t realize that God wants to give us the Holy Spirit, just as a father wants to give his children good things. We need His Spirit, and He is more than willing to fill us. We just have to ask.

For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent? Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

Luke 11:10-13

We might have a big experience when the Holy Spirit comes to dwell in us - we might feel His love and power fill us. Or, we might not feel anything at all - yet the Holy Spirit is there, ready to do His work in us. Either way, we know that His presence is one request God will absolutely honor when we ask, because it is always good.

A second precondition is that we should always open our Bible study with prayer. It’s important to remember that Bible study is a spiritual issue as well as an intellectual one. God gave us brains, and He wants us to use the minds He gave us, but we are also on a spiritual battlefield. We should always open with prayer.

A third part of preparation is obedience. We want to be under the tutorship of the Author of the Bible. God will reward our obedience with further insights. Obedience is a prerequisite, and we want to be pre-committed and surrendered to Jesus Christ as we embark on this study.

No Shadow of Turning

Scientific explanations are always changing. That’s the reality of science. As more information comes in, the stories change. Nothing is ever 100% proven in science, and all scientists know this. It was once thought that the speed of light was infinite, until the 17th century Danish astronomer Ole Rømer discovered from his observations of Jupiter’s moon Io that light had a finite speed. If we compare a physics course using 1950s textbooks to a physics course today, the differences would surprise us. Neanderthals have long been regarded as hulking, stupid cave dwellers, but archeological finds have demonstrated that Neanderthals were as intelligent as modern humans (if not more so).

Unlike scientific “facts,” the truth never changes. That might seem an odd thing to say, but scientific facts are based on our limited observations and knowledge about the world, and truth is based on reality itself. Our understanding might change, but the truth never does. What’s more important, God never changes. There is no variableness in Him - no “shadow of turning.” Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

What does that mean for us? It means that God is dependable. It means He doesn’t stop being who He is. His love is everlasting, and so is His Word. His promises three thousand years ago still stand today. Our circumstances change. Our culture changes. The world changes, but God doesn’t. In the 8th century B.C., Isaiah declared that God’s Word lasts forever, and nearly 900 years later, the apostle Peter affirmed that truth:

The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever.

Isaiah 40:8

For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

1 Peter 1:24-25

God accomplishes His purposes in His time - in “the fullness of time” - but He accomplishes them. When Jesus fulfilled a multitude of Old Testament prophecies, He was fulfilling promises that God had given 400-4000 years earlier. When we consider that 2000 years have passed since Christ’s birth, remember that God gave a ram in Isaac’s place on Mt. Moriah as a type of Christ nearly 2100 years before Jesus was

4 James 1:17

5 Hebrews 13:8
God exists outside of time. A thousand years are as a day in the eyes of God.

The Bible is filled with end-times prophecies about Israel, yet 200 years ago there was no nation of Israel. Scholars habitually allegorized those prophecies, because Israel hadn’t existed as a nation since the early years of the Roman Empire. Then in 1948, Israel declared its independence. Within a century, Jerusalem went from being a dingy backwash part of the Ottoman Empire to a cup of trembling for all the nations of the world. Suddenly, the ancient prophecies about end-times Israel came to life again.

Yet, the purposes in God’s heart never changed. He never changed. Our limited perspectives got a step up in 1948, but the God of the universe, the King of eternity knew during all those intervening centuries exactly what He had in store for Israel and for the salvation of the whole world.

As we read the Bible, we need to remember that God doesn’t change. His power, His love, His goodness and truth have everything to do with His unchanging character and very little to do with physical appearances. We live in a broken world doomed for ultimate destruction. We are faced daily with spiritual warfare that can hide its face behind the physical bodies that cry out in front of us. Yet, the Bible blazes the constant light of salvation to our dying world. We need to know it. We need to study it and understand it as our source of spiritual food.

During the middle of World War II, two Dutch sisters managed to smuggle a Bible into the Nazi’s Ravensbruck concentration camp. Corrie ten Boom relates that time in her 1971 book The Hiding Place, saying:

6 Scholars offer many drawn-out dating schemes for the Old Testament. To find the date of Isaac’s near-sacrifice, we can do simple Bible math. Adding king reigns from the destruction of the Temple in 586 B.C. to Solomon’s reign puts Solomon’s 4th year in 1015 B.C. Solomon’s 4th year was 480 years after the Exodus (1 Kings 6:1). The Exodus took place 430 years after Jacob’s family went down into Egypt (Exodus 12:40-41). Jacob moved to Egypt at age 130, living there 17 years until he died at 147 (Genesis 47:28). Isaac was sixty when Jacob and Esau were born (Genesis 25:26). According to Josephus in The Antiquities of the Jews (1.13.2), Isaac was almost-sacrificed by Abraham when he was 25 (35 years before the twins were born). This basic math places the Akedah, the near-sacrifice of Isaac, in 2090 B.C.

7 Psalm 90:4; 2 Peter 3:8
From morning until lights-out, whenever we were not in ranks for roll call, our Bible was the center of an ever-widening circle of help and hope. Like waifs clustered around a blazing fire, we gathered about it, holding out our hearts to its warmth and light. The blacker the night around us grew, the brighter and truer and more beautiful burned the word of God.

When we grasp the truth of the Bible and then obey it, it always leads to more truth. Most people are spiritually starved, and they don’t even know what the Bible says. They believe the propaganda campaign against it. They believe the lie that God is a violent, cruel, capricious being - or they believe the lie that He is a big soft, Santa Claus character in the clouds. A love for the Bible requires knowing the Bible - and knowing the Bible leads us to a fuller, truer and greater knowledge of God. Ultimately, knowing God leads to loving and adoring Him. When we discover how truly good and wise God is - when we discover His incredible strength and love - we can hardly help but grab hold of Him with all our hearts.

Ultimately, knowing God leads to loving and adoring Him. When we discover how truly good and wise God is - when we discover His incredible strength and love

Dr. Chuck Missler explores the background, and myths, surrounding one of our favorite holidays.

- What really happened in Bethlehem two thousand years ago?
- Who were the “Magi?”
- Why a virgin birth?
- What does a Christmas Tree have to do with it?
- On what “loophole” does the Messianic hope rest?

Each year at Christmas we celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ. After the New Year, we struggle to remember to add a year as we date our checks, which should remind us that the entire Western World reckons its calendar from the birth of the One who changed the world more than any other before or since.

It is disturbing to discover that much of what we have been taught about the Christmas season seems to be more tradition than truth. Santa Claus isn’t the only myth or legend that has arisen out of this season.

Revelation is a “lens” that puts the entire Bible into focus. The lens is focused on the person of Jesus Christ, and his destiny is imminent. This is a book of victory: We are overcomers! We are the ultimate winners in the game of life! (I read the ending: we win!)
MAYBE IT’S TIME YOU LEARNED THE TRUTH ABOUT THE TRUE LOCATION OF WHERE CHRIST WAS CRUCIFIED…

Warning! This DVD will challenge your understanding as to where Jesus Christ was crucified. Known for his detective approach to Bible archaeology, Bob Cornuke sets aside the emotionally held traditions of the past that may have obscured the pathway to truth and opens the door to a whole new way of finding the Biblical site of the crucifixion. By using the compass of solid evidence, Bob charts a course for discovery that will thrill the willing Bible explorer who is on a quest for truth. Don’t let tradition get in the way of truth. A must-read for the serious Bible student.

Mystery of Melchizedek

Dr. Chuck Missler

- Who was this strange Priest/King who received tithes from Abraham? (…and administered bread and wine to him?)
- How is Melchizedek relevant to the Messiah of Israel?
- Did Melchizedek have a temple that predated Solomon’s?
- Is the Jewish Kingdom as portrayed in the Old Testament simply an intermediate parenthesis within a larger expanse?
- Why are the distinctives so divergent from the enforced separation of the kingship and priesthood under David?
- Were the bread and wine served by Melchizedek eschatological? Did they embrace the Cross? (They, too, echo across the pages of the OT)
- Was the Lord’s Communion anticipated in Gen. 14?

These studies may challenge many of the comfortable traditions that have shaped our classic Biblical perspectives.

On the Trail of Discovery

Bob Cornuke

Bob Cornuke has been described by some as “The Real Indiana Jones.” His exploits have excited the interests of believers and skeptics alike.

- Has anyone found Noah’s Ark?
- Does the Ark of the Covenant still exist today?
- Where is the real Mount Sinai?
- Can we know the site of Paul’s shipwreck?

Join Bob as he gives a summary of his adventures that have led him to some of the most important discoveries in modern history concerning the possible real location of Biblical sites.

Roots of War: Profiling the Middle East

Dr. Chuck Missler

As diligent Bible students, most of us are familiar with the emergence of the empires that were profiled in Daniel 1 and Daniel 7; the Babylonian, Persian, Greek and Roman empires. However, many of us are probably a little hazy about the tide of events subsequent to that period.

Find out what is really going on in the Middle East.

Temple

Bob Cornuke

In a book that is being heralded as “an investigative masterpiece” with “astounding archaeological and prophetic implications,” TEMPLE: Amazing New Discoveries That Change Everything About the Location of Solomon’s Temple, by Robert Cornuke, is sending shockwaves through the Jewish, Muslim, and Christian worlds.

Can you imagine the upheaval in political and religious thinking if the Temple Mount in Jerusalem is not the site of Solomon’s and Herod’s temples?

Book: $12.00
A former police investigator and SWAT team member, Bob Cornuke is a Biblical investigator, international explorer, and author of nine books. He has participated in over sixty expeditions around the world searching for lost locations described in the Bible. These journeys include searching for Mount Sinai in Egypt and Saudi Arabia, looking for the remains of Noah’s Ark in Turkey with astronaut Jim Irwin (the eighth man to walk on the moon) and researching ancient Assyrian and Babylonian flood accounts in Iran.

Breakthroughs in the fields of physics, technology and biology led Chuck Missler to record this wonderful study in Genesis (recorded in 2004). With over 24 hours of teaching, this verse-by-verse study of the book of Genesis has been one of our most sought-after and best-selling series in the history of Koinonia House.

Pulling back the veil of prehistory, Chuck will take you on a journey into the very nature of our universe, exploring the mechanics of creation, time and space, the physics of eternity and the intricate design of God’s wonderful plan for our salvation.

This foundational study begins where any true adventure does...

“In the Beginning.”
How to Study the Bible

Dr. Chuck Missler

Which translation is best? Which Study Bible? What are the secrets of resolving difficult or controversial passages?

From forty years of intensive Bible study and teaching, Missler shares his favorite helps, secrets and practical suggestions on how to take the Bible seriously.

Most Christians, although they want to do in-depth Bible study, know little of the types, philosophies and tools of study available. Is the Bible to be taken literally or figuratively? What study aids would be most helpful in beginning my own home study library?

Going through the Bible book by book? “Eat the elephant one bite at a time.” These studies produce the most lasting results. There is a balance in the “whole counsel of God.” (Emmaus Road in Luke 24:27).

Where to start?

A good “first book” is the Gospel of John: “A child can wade in it and an elephant can bathe in it!” Other good starting points include Genesis, Acts, Matthew, Daniel, and Revelation (which is the only book which unequivocally promises a blessing to the reader). You are unique: let the Spirit lead you.

The Fulcrum of the Entire Universe

Dr. Chuck Missler

Isaiah 53 is one of the most astonishing passages in the entire Bible:

It is often called “The Holy of Holies” of the Old Testament. However, it is even more broadly impacting than most people realize; that’s why we call it, “The Fulcrum of the Entire Universe.” Its reach includes the entire creation.

Clearly, its most devotional significance details our personal salvation: indeed, the entire New Testament is summarized in its remarkable 12 verses. Yet it also includes some of the most astonishing apologetic insights in the entire Bible. Rich rewards for the diligent.

Dr. Chuck Missler

When did Satan fall?

We know that the angels were created prior to the Earth. We find Satan had already fallen in Genesis 3. The mystery is, when did he fall? It appears that there are substantial Scriptural references to his rebellion, his agenda, and the subsequent catastrophic judgment that ensued.

This raises the whole issue of the origin of evil. And why hasn’t God simply wiped him, and sin, out completely? It is also disturbing to recognize that Satan tempted Jesus by offering him the kingdom, power and the glory in the temptations recorded in Luke 5. How could Satan lay a legitimate claim to these?

Inheritance & Rewards

Dr. Chuck Missler

Are all believers going to be equal in heaven? Wasn’t it all decided at the cross? Is there a difference between overcoming sin and bearing fruit?

Inheritance came to the firstborn son by virtue of his birth. Whether he actually secured it depended upon his obedience and the father’s choice. Inheritance was subject to condition and obedience.

Inheritances could be forfeited. The Exodus Generation was promised an inheritance, but failed to obtain it at Kadesh-Barnea. Israel was God’s “firstborn son”, yet only 2 of over 2 million took possession of their inheritance. Even Moses was excluded due to his disobedience. Esau sold his inheritance for a bowl of pottage.

We have been promised an inheritance in the Kingdom to come. But is there more required of us than just our acceptance? Does behavior in this life really influence our future?

Eternal Security
Dr. Chuck Missler

One of Christianity’s most controversial issues - and one of our most frequently asked questions - involves the concept of Eternal Security. There are good scholars on all sides of this issue, yet we felt it would be useful to explain our own views on this highly charged subject.

We believe that the root problem stems from a lack of precision in our definitions. Earl Rademacher brings this to light when he declares that, “I have been saved; I am being saved; and, I will be saved.” He is simply highlighting the three tenses of salvation.

DVD: $19.95

Heaven and Hell
Dr. Chuck Missler

What Happens When You Die?

We don’t like to think about death. It’s not a pleasant subject, and we avoid even discussing it seriously or giving it any diligent study. Yet our appointment with death is the most certain event in our future. We all know of personal examples when death has come suddenly to people, without warning, without preparations: car accidents, stray bullets, unforeseen strokes. When it comes our time, what do we expect death to be like? How will we enter eternity?

DVD: $19.95

The Rapture
Dr. Chuck Missler

There continue to be many questions concerning the “Rapture” of the Church and its apparent contrast with the “Second Coming” of Jesus Christ. Where does this strange view come from? Is the term “rapture” even in the Bible?

Clearly, the idea of the Rapture can be considered the most preposterous belief in Biblical Christianity. The situation regarding the doctrine of the Rapture is painfully similar to the famous quote by Dr. Richard Feynman, speaking of quantum physics:

“I think it is safe to say that no one understands quantum mechanics... in fact, it is often stated of all the theories proposed in this century, the silliest is quantum theory. Some say that the only thing that quantum theory has going for it, in fact, is that it is unquestionably correct.”

The Great Commission

Ron Matsen

The last commandment of Jesus before His ascension was for His disciples to “go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature.” The apostle Paul tells us, “How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher?”

- How seriously should we personally take this command today?
- Is this command somehow only limited to those who feel they have the gift of evangelism?
- What needs to be said, understood, and believed for a person to be born-again?

DVD: $19.95

The Holy Spirit

Ron Matsen

In 1 Corinthians chapter 12 the apostle Paul writes, “Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I do not want you to be ignorant.” Sadly, today many Christians are poorly equipped to understand what the Bible has to say about the Holy Spirit.

To comprehend the character and conduct of the Holy Spirit you must understand that He is a Person, that He is God, and that He has a specific purpose.

This four-part study explores these topics related to the Holy Spirit:

- Part 4 – “The Fruit of the Holy Spirit”

DVD: $29.95

Hidden Treasures

Dr. Chuck Missler

For the novice as well as the sophisticate, this DVD is full of surprises. It includes subtle discoveries lying just “beneath” the text -- hidden messages, encryptions, deliberate misspellings and other amendments to the text -- that present implications beyond the immediate context, demonstrating a skillful design that has its origin from outside our space and time. Drawing upon over forty years of collecting, Chuck highlights in this study many of the precious nuggets that have become characteristic of his popular Bible studies around the world.

It is guaranteed to stimulate, prove, and hopefully, disturb. It will confound the skeptic and encourage the believer. It is a “must” for every thinking seeker of truth and serious inquirer of reality.

DVD: $19.95 • Book: $5.95 • eBook: $4.95
Israel and The Church
Dr. Chuck Missler

- Has God abandoned Israel?
- Has the Church “replaced” Israel?
- What does the Bible say?

As we watch the world events, it is clear that Israel is following her prophetic scenario, and a new chapter is about to be written—and there may be a big surprise on our near horizon!

DVD: $19.95 • Book: $5.95 • eBook: $4.95

Jesus: Who & Why?
Dr. Chuck Missler

Just who is Jesus Christ? What did Jesus actually accomplish? Jesus Christ is not “a concept,” an “idea,” or a “useful traditional value.” He is an actual living person who came to accomplish a specific purpose that prevails over everything else: His achievement continues to impact you and me, and determines our eternal destiny.

He is the fulfillment of a pervasive promise made before the foundation of the world and the very standard by which the entire universe, and everything in it, will be judged!

DVD: $19.95

The Romance of Redemption
Dr. Chuck Missler

The Book of Ruth is venerated in college literature classes as one of the most elegant love stories of all time. What most people don't realize is that it is one of the most significant “New Testament” books located in the Old Testament—and it stands as a pivotal study in Bible Prophecy! It is an essential prerequisite to understanding the Book of Revelation!

This tiny, 4-chapter book is one of the most inexhaustible sources of spiritual insight in the entire Bible. While it has been summarized in many of Chuck's broader studies, Chuck explores the many surprises hidden in the text of this charming treasure (including some hidden secrets that will astonish most Biblical scholars!) Every detail of the text will evidence a skillful design beyond the skills of any human editor.

DVD: $29.95 • Book: $5.95 • eBook: $4.95
The Book of Revelation is the only book of the Bible with a Promise to the reader! Why? What makes this book so special?

Revelation is a “lens” that puts the entire Bible into focus. The lens is focused on the person of Jesus Christ, and His destiny is imminent. This is a book of victory: We are overcomers! We are the ultimate winners in the game of life! (I read the ending: we win!)

One of the reasons this book strikes us as strange is because of our lack of understanding concerning the Old Testament. The Book of Revelation consists of 404 verses that contain over 800 allusions to the Old Testament. These are detailed, along with Chuck’s analysis of the design and structure of this fascinating book. Learn about the past, present and future of the Church and our ultimate destiny. This is an ideal “first study” and foundational for every Christian.
Since He Wrote about Me

IT’S TIME TO DECIDE FOR YOURSELF…

Christians have claimed for centuries that the collection of 66 books we call The Bible is reliable with respect to what it affirms, correct in its history of God’s dealings with his universe and with humanity, historically accurate regarding its doctrinal teachings, and an utterly trustworthy guide for day-to-day life.

But frankly, every generation has had its share of doubters. Maybe you’re one of them…

Today, ISV Foundation Executive Director Dr. William Welty tackles the thorny subject of the reliability of the Scriptures—by inviting Jesus of Nazareth himself to talk in his very own words about the authenticity, reliability, and historical accuracy of the Bible that he read and about which he taught.

By the time you’ve finished reading Since He Wrote about Me, you’ll have learned precisely what the world’s most famous rabbi had to say about this remarkable book we call The Bible, a collection of literary works by dozens of different authors who wrote over a period of hundreds of years.

Death of Discernment

Ron Matsen

Of all the end-time themes discussed in the Bible, “deception and apostasy in the church” is listed more times than any other end-time “sign of the times.”

Are we currently living in the Age of Apostasy? Ron Matsen explores the evidence and causes of apostasy and provides an antidote for apostasy in this timely study.

Mary: Ten Test Questions for the World’s Finest Woman

Dr. William Welty

MAYBE IT’S TIME YOU LEARNED THE TRUTH…

The community of Christian faith worldwide knows her as the finest woman who ever lived. Born in obscurity to a distant descendant of Israel’s magnificent King David, Mary, the mother of Jesus of Nazareth, was honored by the Creator of the Universe to be the person through whom God himself would visit his own Creation.

No matter what you may have thought you knew before about this first century paragon of virtue and faith, there’s a good possibility that you’ve been misinformed about her.

In fact, chances are you’ve been wrong from the start about the most remarkable woman who ever walked the dusty roads of first century Israel at the height of the Roman Empire’s power.

No, Mary isn’t who you think she is. More than twenty centuries have come and gone since a teenaged virgin became the mother of God’s incarnate Son. As a result, far too much myth has grown up around the person and story of the woman who became one of the foundational figures of human history.

But what the New Testament records tell us about the life of Mary, the mother of Jesus is fascinating enough in its own right that accumulated legends seem to embellish the story.

So today, more than twenty centuries later, Biblical scholar and theologian Dr. William Welty pulls back the dusty curtain of historically inaccurate tradition and introduces you to the very human, but utterly magnificent character of Mary, the mother of the Messiah, as she struggles to pass Ten Test Questions for the World’s Finest Woman.

In this analysis of every passage recorded in the New Testament in which she is mentioned, you’ll learn why Mary, the mother of the Rabbi from Nazareth, rose from literal obscurity to become one of the most pivotal figures in all of human history.

Critical Thinking

Chris Corlett

- How do we separate reliable information from unreliable information?
- How can we determine what is relevant evidence supporting a position and what is superfluous?
- What is the difference between evidentiary burden and persuasive burden?
- How does the quantum of proof differ in the court of public opinion from the court of competent jurisdiction?
- What is evidential apologetics versus pre-suppositional apologetics?
- How does the Bible sharpen our discernment?

Join Chris Corlett from the Executive Briefing Room at the River Lodge, New Zealand, as he explores these questions while addressing Critical Thinking.

Footprints of the Messiah

Dr. Chuck Missler

What Old Testament Bible Study is mentioned twelve times in one book of the Bible, is given by seven different people and is almost never given today? That Jesus is the Messiah of Israel! How certain can we be that Jesus is the Messiah?

Review some of the major passages in the Tanakh (the Old Testament) which predict and describe the Scriptural expectations to be fulfilled by the Messiah of Israel. This study will also take a mathematical analysis of a small sampling from the more than 300 predictions concerning the Jewish Messiah.

Defending the Bible

Ron Matsen

For salvation, Man must understand the purpose and power of the Bible. But how do we explain our faith? If we only rely on our personal experience to explain our faith, we are no different than any other religious mystic.

• Can the Bible be trusted or has it been corrupted over time?
• How do we defend the Bible as the inerrant Word of God?
• What does the Bible reveal about God and us?

The Spiritual Gifts

Dr. Chuck Missler

The apostle Paul told the Corinthian Christians, “Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.” (1 Cor 12:1)

• Who or what is the Holy Spirit?
• What are the gifts of the Spirit?
• Are the gifts of the Spirit for today?
• Do all Christians have spiritual gifts?
• What is the greatest sign of being filled with the Holy Spirit?

Kingdom, Power & Glory

Dr. Chuck & Nancy Missler

“After being Christians for over 50 years, we consider the truths in this book to be some of the most life-changing principles we have encountered since our new birth.” — Chuck and Nancy Missler

Scripture tells us that we are to “prepare ourselves” for Christ’s soon return. What exactly does this mean?

What if we aren’t prepared?

Being ready, fit and prepared will dramatically affect our role, our position and our place of responsibility in the future Millennial Kingdom.

The Whole Counsel of God

Dr. Chuck Missler

Our Lord repeatedly instructed us: “Be not deceived.” That is an imperative: a command, not simply a suggestion. But how? What are the tools to prevent our being deceived or misled?

The context of a passage is always a primary consideration in the search for understanding of a passage of Scripture. It is often cited, “A verse out of context is a pretext.” And, indeed, one must always maintain an awareness of both who is doing the speaking and the audience being addressed. However, this foundational emphasis can also be a restrictive blindfold to some of a passage’s deeper (and broader) implications.

The Beginning of Wisdom

Dr. Chuck Missler

“The fear of God is the beginning of wisdom.” Proverbs 9:10

How do we balance the awesome majesty due to the Creator and Ruler of the universe with the gracious family intimacy that is now available to us through the completed work of Christ?

What does His Holiness demand of us, personally?

What are the hazards of failing to render the Almighty His due, while availing ourselves the riches committed to us in the precious promises in His Word?

How do we deal with these paramount issues facing us daily in practical challenges?

Chuck Missler grapples with these wildly misunderstood tensions with down-to-earth frankness and Biblically based candor.

The Christmas Story

Dr. Chuck Missler
Dr. Chuck Missler explores the background, and myths, surrounding one of our favorite holidays.

- What really happened in Bethlehem two thousand years ago?
- Who were the “Magi?”
- Why a virgin birth?
- What does a Christmas Tree have to do with it?
- On what “loophole” does the Messianic hope rest?

The Easter Story

Dr. Chuck Missler
What Really Happened?

Most reasonably informed Christians are well aware that many of the traditions that surround the Christmas holidays have pagan origins and very little correlation with the actual events as recorded in the Bible. However, most of us are surprised when we discover that some of what we have been taught about Easter is not only in error, but deliberately so!

SCIENCE & WONDERS VOLUME I: On the Edge of the Chasm

Amy Joy
A Life’s Search for Truth

This is the true tale of a biochemistry student who loves geology and digging up dinosaur fossils and, most of all, truth.

It’s also the tale of a geology professor, a warm friendship and controversy. It involves snowstorms and police, death and dreams - and miracles.

A terrible chasm appears to loom between faith and science in academia, yet we find God still shows His power and kindness in this world of hard, cold rocks.

Amy Joy holds degrees in Biochemistry and Religion & Philosophy. She has written many hundreds of articles on science and technology, international politics and current events, and has written some 20 books. Amy is research assistant and editor for K-House, assisting in the production of most of Dr. Chuck Missler’s books over the years.

The Feasts of Israel

Dr. Chuck Missler & Dr. Dan Stolebarger

The Feasts of Israel, set by God, are not only commemorative in a historical context, but are also prophetic.

The first three feasts in the 1st month point to the Messiah's First Coming; the last three feasts in the 7th month, to His Second Coming. The middle feast highlights the Church, in more ways than is generally recognized.

Hope Against Hope

Nancy Missler

You can have faith, but still be hopeless. After being a Christian for over 60 years, Nancy lost her hope this past year as she faced overwhelming and multiple physical challenges. When you lose your hope, you not only lose your mooring and your grounding, you also lose your vision and your dreams. But God…loved her so much…that He used her pain and suffering to teach her what real hope in Him means.

That’s what this book is all about.

Hope is “the tie or the connection to the Lord behind the veil.” Hope not only allows us to “see Him who is invisible” in the midst of our trials, it also gives us the endurance to go on. Only “hope” can become “the anchor of our soul” when everything around us is crashing and burning. (Hebrews 6:18-19)

Like Abraham, “who against hope believed in hope,” we must learn to unconditionally trust the Lord to do the impossible, regardless of what we see, what we think, or what we feel. (Romans 4:18)

The Reemergence of Assyria?

The rapid rise of the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria (ISIS) has caused many in the world to wonder at its apocalyptic implications. We will examine this emerging problem with what I like to call the “Issachar Challenge.” Therefore, we need to address three questions concerning this area of the world:

- What is its history?
- Who are its leaders?
- What is its prophetic destiny?

When you consider the coalescences of current events in the former region of Assyria with Biblical precedents and prophecies it should not seem strange to see this region of the world once again at the center of the world’s prophetic stage. The question is, “What should we be doing during this time of great uncertainty?”

Join Ron Matsen from the Executive Briefing Room of the River Lodge, New Zealand as he examines the past, present, and future events associated with this troublesome region of the world.

Behold a White Horse: The Coming World Leader

The final world dictator seeking global domination will also be an “Assyrian” who is here characterized by a bow, riding a white horse. It is interesting how many confuse this counterfeit with the rider of the white horse in Revelation 19.

“Behold a White Horse” explores the career of the first of these “Four Horsemen” who seems to have at least 33 titles in the Old Testament and 13 in the New Testament and the common term “AntiChrist” really isn’t one of them. We also explore the only physical description of him in the Scripture!

Behold a Red Horse: Wars and Rumors of Wars

Dr. Chuck Missler, an honor graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, with an international background including three decade’s experience in the board rooms of the defense industry, reviews the major Biblical references to warfare, the trends in modern weapons technology, and some of the current preparations for war among the major powers.

Behold a Black Horse: Economic Upheaval and Famine

Most famines are the direct result of government’s deliberate decisions. Germany sank into the most severe hyperinflationary period in recorded history after printing 1.3 trillion marks: that translates to about 4 trillion in today’s dollars. Ironically, that is almost exactly the same amount of money the United States government has printed since 2008.

Behold a Livid Horse: Emergent Diseases and Biochemical Warfare

Why are previously conquered diseases now making a comeback? How real is the threat of biological terrorism? Why is it more dangerous than chemical terrorism? Was the AIDS virus deliberately designed? By whom? And why? Is there any truth behind an agenda to control (and reduce) the world’s population? By whom? And why? Who are the two riders associated with the Livid Horse? How do they differ?

Dr. Chuck Missler

In this study of Daniel’s 70 Weeks, you will discover this amazing prophecy in the Old Testament predicted the very day that Jesus presented Himself as the Meschiach Nagid, the Messiah the King, to Jerusalem.

The Seventy Week Prophecy of Daniel 9 includes the most incredible validation of Jesus Christ as the Messiah, which He held His people accountable to have known.

In a confidential briefing to His disciples, Jesus also highlights this passage as the key to understanding all other prophecies concerning His return.

It is essential to understanding the Book of Revelation and other related passages.

Weathering the Coming Storm

Dr. Chuck Missler & Ron Matsen

Dr. Chuck Missler outlines our current economic predicament and offers defensive steps you can take to lessen the impact of the impending economic crisis. Chuck shares some key strategies to prepare yourself spiritually and practically.

- Is the World facing another major economic upheaval?
- What is the best strategy to protect your family in times of economic uncertainty?

The Church has enjoyed a relatively peaceful existence in the West for a few centuries but with the coming persecution, how do we go about organizing home study and home-church?

Expectations of the Antichrist

Dr. Chuck Missler & Ron Matsen

There are many diverse anticipations concerning the Coming World Leader, commonly referred to as “The Antichrist.” This study will explore the Biblical descriptions with the specific expectations of the globalists, Islam, the Vatican, Freemasonry, and others.

- Will he be a Nephilim?
- Why is the Vatican openly preparing to receive an “alien” visitor?
- Will he be a resurrection of Nimrod? Is his DNA a factor?
- What are the expectations of transhumanist technologists in this regard?

The Magog Invasion

Dr. Chuck Missler

For many years we have been following the conventional view of Ezekiel 38 and 39. With the growing tensions between Iran and Israel, these passages are the subject of much current debate. However, the conventional view still leaves a number of puzzling inconsistencies and contradictions. Ezekiel 38 indicates that Israel is dwelling safely and “without walls.” Yet, with walls being built and missiles landing each day Israel is hardly dwelling in peace. This leaves us with a puzzling anomaly: the players listed in Ezekiel seem to exclude any of the bordering nations: Where are the Palestinians? The Lebanese? The Syrians? The Iraqis? The Jordanians? The Egyptians?

The End Times Scenario

Dr. Chuck Missler

Many people are becoming increasingly conscious that we are entering a unique phase of human history. Some are terrified. Some are predicting cosmic doom on the near horizon. Others are making astonishing predictions. What does the Bible really say?

Eschatology (the Study of “Last Things”) is among the most challenging avenues of study, even for the most sophisticated.

- What are the “real” End Time events?
- Does the Church go through the Great Tribulation?
- Which Kingdom do we pray for in the Lord’s Prayer?
- Is there really a “Battle of Armageddon”? Why?
- Should we expect a literal Babylon on the horizon?
- What Scripture did Jesus deliberately leave out in Nazareth?
- Who is the “AntiChrist”? Is he alive today?

DVD: $49.95
Doctrines of Demons

Ron Matsen

What does the Bible have to say about the End Times? Matthew's Gospel records the warning of Jesus where He said, “Take heed that no one deceives you” (Matt 24:4). The apostle Paul expands on this by stating; “Now the Spirit expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons.” (1 Tim 4:1)

Satan often relies on deception through disinformation. Misinformation is defined an accidental un-truth where disinformation is the intentional misrepresentation of the truth. Therefore, doctrines of demons are creeds that offer counterfeit truths.

DVD: $19.95

Prophecy 101

Dr. Chuck Missler

The Bible contains 8,362 predictive verses about 737 different matters and yet prophecy is one of the most neglected subjects in the Church today. Understanding prophecy is an essential and fundamental issue for every serious Christian. But where do we start?

This series has been designed to give you a strategic overview of prophecy: past, present and future. This series will encourage the new believer and strengthen the faith of all who study it. Now, more than ever, it is important that we have answers for people who are seeking the truth. We need to equip ourselves to be ready to give an answer to every man for the hope that lies within us.

Prophecy 20/20

Dr. Chuck Missler

Prophecy 20/20 condenses many challenging concepts into remarkably clear information about where we are on God’s timetable. Through careful exegesis, Chuck Missler:

- examines important trends on today’s geopolitical and technological horizons through the eyes of Scripture’s prophetic calendar:
- analyzes the likely end-time effects of global changes, from the nature of modern weaponry to the implications of the world’s attitude toward the nation of Islam: and
- highlights our resulting spiritual responsibilities in scientific, social, and political arenas.

Kabbalah

Dr. Chuck Missler

Whether disillusioned by the bias of contemporary “science,” or frustrated by worldly materialism, increasing numbers of desperate people are now seeking “answers” outside the realm of natural phenomena and are pursuing the supernatural... “Is there anyone out there?”

Beyond the allure of many contemporary forms of ancient paganism, such as the New Age, Wicca, and others, many people have become attracted to a form of Hebrew mysticism known as Kabbalah. The popular press is speckled with articles of prominent Hollywood personalities who have taken up a popular contemporary version of Kabbalah

It is particularly self-contradictory to find these occultic practices embedded within Judaism, despite the numerous explicit prohibitions against all forms of the occult recorded throughout the very Torah that is so highly venerated among the Jews...

Anyone with a small measure of Biblical literacy should realize that occult practices are expressly prohibited in the Scriptures. Scripture condemns by name spiritism, mediumism (channeling) and necromancy, and various forms of sorcery and divination, including astrology and magic. In ancient Israel, divination was a capital crime: if someone was caught casting a horoscope, or other occultic practice, they were put to death. Why?

Because God is jealous of His uniqueness, and He alone knows what the future holds. To intrude on His office is to attempt to intrude on His glory. Occult activity also courts deception and betrayal from the demonic realm, and promotes evil under the guise of legitimate religious practice. Occult involvement will eventually lead to judgment for those who refuse to forsake it.

The Next Holocaust

Dr. Chuck Missler

- What is the purpose of the Great Tribulation?
- What is the prophetic role of Ammon, Moab, and Edom (now known as Jordan)?
- Where does Jesus return? On the Mount of Olives or in Bozrah?

Jesus warns the dwellers in Judea that when they see the “Abomination of Desolation” - a desecrating idol installed in the Holy of Holies of the Temple - to flee to the mountains. The remnant of Israel will find refuge there for three and a half years while God protects them and provides for them. In this study, Chuck explores some of the less familiar prophecies of the End Times, the Tribulation, and the Second Coming of Jesus Christ.

The Angels Series

Angels, Volume I: The Angelic Realm

For thousands of years most people have either had or still hold to misconceptions, myths, legends, or traditions about angels and our own reality. In this study we will deal with these fascinating entities.

A hidden army of protection: A reality that is normally hidden from our view. But are they real? What are the discoveries on the advance of science that may shed light on our understanding of them?

Angels, Volume II: The Invisible War

Volume two of a two part series, this DVD deals with many of the questions you may have such as: What is Hell, Hades and Gehenna? How do Demons differ from Angels and what’s their limitations and agenda? What is Satan’s origin, agenda and destiny? What is the Age of Hybrids? How do we prepare ourselves through Spiritual hygiene and the Armor of God?

Angels, Volume III: The Denizens of the Metacosm

Volume 3 explores the contradictory behavior of UFOs and other demonic deceptions characteristic of the End Times.

Are they real? Why do UFOs enjoy a military classification higher than our most sensitive weapons systems? Why are the events which occurred in Roswell New Mexico still classified after 66 years? Why is the Vatican openly preparing to receive an Alien Visitor? How should a Christian deal with the occurrences of Alien abductions? Jesus admonished us to “Be not deceived.” How? How do we prepare for the deception which, “if it were possible, would deceive the very elect”? (Matt 24:24)

CHANCES ARE, Jesus isn’t who you think He is. No matter what you may have read before about this first-century rabbi from Nazareth, there’s a good possibility that you’ve been misinformed. In fact, maybe you’ve been wrong from the start about the most amazing man who ever walked the surface of the earth.

Many people who knew Jesus understood Him well enough to admire Him, to respect Him, and to love Him. Others were terrified of Him. Some of His own relatives said He was out of His mind. The politically and religiously intolerant leaders of first-century Israel hated Him. So they murdered Him. But that wasn’t the end of the story. Not by a long shot.

Today, more than twenty centuries later, respected Bible scholars Dr. Chuck Missler and Dr. William Welty bring Jesus of Nazareth to you in the most unconventional way possible... by bringing Jesus of Nazareth to talk in His very own words about Himself, His purpose, His nature, and His mission.
